

District Information

Congressman Bartlett has four district offices set-up to help constituents with problems or concerns that they might be having regarding the federal government and its agencies. Please fill out a privacy release form and either fax, mail or hand deliver to one of the offices listed below for assistance. Please note that we need a signature on a privacy release before we can begin making inquiries on your behalf.

(If at all possible, please call ahead if you are coming to the office so that someone will be available to speak with you.)
